hibit of Farm Products.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CREWE, VA., November 23.—The farmers of this section have organized a club called 'The Ingleside Farmers' Club.'

This club gave an exhibition of farm products in Crewe Saturday. It is their aim and desire to impress upon farmers the necessity for a diversity of crops, and more especially to find a money crop as necessity for a diversity of crops, and more especially to find a money crop as a substitute for tobacco. Members report over three thousand bushels of potatoes in this immediate neighborhood, with a heavy yield. All increased acreage for next year.

This club will hold an exhibit again This club will hold an exhibit again next year, and will enlarge it to the proportions of a county fair for Notloway, if the necessary co-operation can be secured. The movement is thus far regarded favorably, and no doubt will result in great good for the promoters and the people generally.

Explained Indictment.

During the examination of Boone, he explained the indictment against himself alluded to last Saturday, He said he was charged with the embezzlement of $80 and said the charge was the result of a dispute claim over insurance with a traveling agent of the company which he (Boone) represented as local agent. Mr. Palmer subjected Boone to a searching inquiry concerning the letter signed by a rubber stamp with Boone's name, which urked the prosecution of C. D. Hoskins for contempt in order "to break down old man Hoskins." Ho was asked who could have written the letter if not himself. The witness replied that he did not know unless it might have been a son of Judgo Liddon, who was around the of Judgo Liddon, who was around the office a great deal. Asked as to the mooffice a great deal. Asked as to the motive any person other than himself could have had in writing the letter, he said that it would have been to connect Judge Swayne with the case making testimony before this committee, that if the letter remained uncontradicted it would show a conspiracy, or, he added, not that exactly, but a connection between himself. Tunison and Calboun with the Hostins case. The letter he said must have been forged after proceedings were started against Swayne.

Mr. Palmer asked him make an affidavit that Hoskins was about to dispose of his property and Boone replied in the affirmative. "And on that affidavit." said Mr. Palmer. "Judge affidavit." sald Mr. Palmer, "Judge Swayno issued an order attaching Hoskins property and depriving him of the use of it and stopping his business?"
